Hello,

I hope you have all had a wonderful week. My name is Mrs Opong and I am the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Coordinator at St Clements. It's been lovely getting to know many of you children and parents since you've made me feel very welcome. When relaxing, I love to read and one of my favourite authors is CS Lewis. He got me hooked as a child with 'The Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe' and into adulthood with the 'Screwtape Letters', which I highly recommend. As well as reading, I also enjoy going to see live bands from Shalamar (yes I'm that old!) to Jess Glynne and enjoying a good boogie to the right music. Spending time with my family is so important to me as we all love to sit around enjoying a laugh at a good sitcom, while eating curried mutton and rice. If you see me around school, feel free to say Hello, I promise not to bite! Mrs Opong

Just before half term, year 6 went to visit a Buddhist temple as part of their RE unit. It was a fascinating experience. The children were beautifully behaved. They also attended a WW2 workshop where they took part in different evacuation scenarios and role playing. This was to support their History topic- World War 2. As well as the fun stuff, the children also completed some practice SATs tests to give us an idea of gaps in knowledge and areas for development. The results from this tests can be shared with parents if you wish to support your child at home. Please speak to Miss Shryane.
