Courage

Hello,

My name is Miss Arshad I joined St. Clement's in January. I am a Teaching Assistant in year 1 working alongside Mrs Rodgers and Mrs Nizamis.

St. Clement's staff and children have been so welcoming that it feels like I have been working here for years. The children in year 1 are a joy to work with. We have been reading the Naughty Bus and went on an investigation around school to see where the Naughty Bus had been.

Today it was lovely to see everyone dressed up as their heroes to raise money for Comic Relief. I can't wait to find out how much we raised as a school.

Hope you all have a lovely weekend.

Miss Arshad - Teaching Assistant

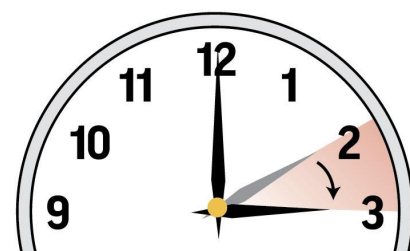

The end of term is drawing near and we would like for you to check out our collection of lost property.

We also ask that you please take the time to label your child's property including PE kits, coats, lunch boxes and water bottles, to make them easier to return when found.

DON'T FORGET

BRAVE THE SHAVE

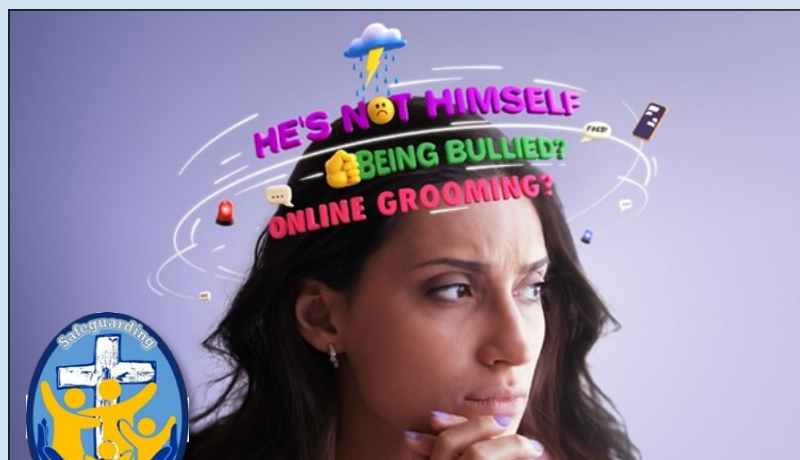

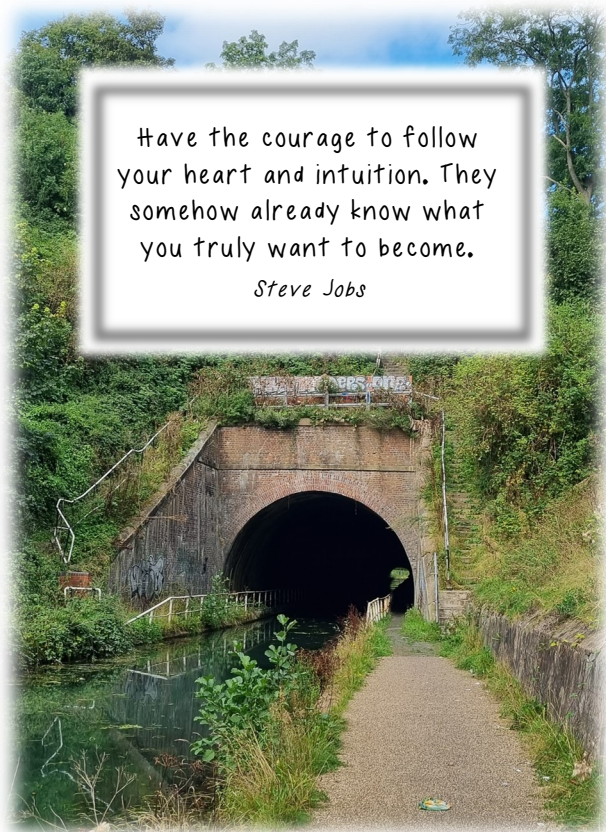

Kayson and Mom are braving the shave, with Kayson cutting off half of his hair and mom ALL of hers, to raise money for a family member with Cancer.

Anyone who would like to sponsor them can do so via the school office or Kayson's Mom.

Have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become.

Safeguarding: ParentWise

As children get older and more independent, issues that affect them can be harder to spot and deal with. Learning about potential dangers can give you the knowledge and skills to act if there is a problem. It could also help keep your child safe by preventing problems before they happen. You know your child best, it's not always easy to know the difference between typical 'growing up' behaviour and signs that something's wrong. It can be worrying if you notice a change in your child. It could be nothing, but it could mean that they need support. Your child may find it hard to tell you, so go with your gut.

Here are some of the common signs that could mean your child is facing an issue: if you've got a feeling something's up – you're right not to ignore it.

- ◆ becoming secretive or withdrawn
- ◆ a change in character
- ◆ repeatedly feeling 'ill' on school days
- ◆ a drop in performance at school
- ◆ having unexplained money or possessions
- ◆ regularly 'losing' money or prized possessions
- ◆ suddenly leaving long-term friendship groups to join new ones
- ◆ a decline in confidence
- ◆ having nightmares or other sleeping problems
- ◆ knowledge of adult issues inappropriate for their age

The ParentWise website has a variety of information and signposting to support parents in helping and understanding their children as well as, having the confidence to tackle bigger issues such as exploitation, mental health, and bullying.
