Happy Friday Everyone!

I am Mrs Shakespeare and I am very pleased and proud to be the Nursery teacher here at St Clement's. I really enjoy working with the youngest of our children; they teach me so much about 'their world', which helps me plan things that I know that they will enjoy. We have lots of fun and many journeys of discovery together.

Next week we have got an educational visit to Ash End House Farm booked for the full time Nursery and Reception children, which I am so looking forward to, because as many of you may know I am mad about animals. Then, on Thursday we will be dressing up for World Book day. Also, Nursery and Reception will be inviting their Mummies to our Mother's Day Assembly (all mums and dads are welcome to come too!) as we celebrate and say a very big thank you for everything our mummies do. We have been working hard to get things right, so it will start slightly earlier at 2.30pm so that we can do all the things we have got planned.

On behalf of all the staff, may I wish you a very happy weekend.

SAT's Workshop - Tuesday 1st March

Year 6 Parents - On Tuesday 1st March there will be a SAT's workshop taking place in the hall. The session will start at 9am and finish at 11am We will be going through what the children need to know for SATs and also looking at how you can support them over the next few weeks. It would be lovely to see as many parents as possible to support the children at this demanding time.

Messages from the Office....

Dinner Money - Please can we remind parents that dinner money should be paid at the start of the week on MONDAY ONLY. The office is very busy every day and people have been paying on a day-by-day basis which is causing problems. We apologise for the queue that occurs on a Monday, however if you would like to just drop your payment off please place the correct change in an envelope with your child's name and class and hand it into the Office. Receipts will then be sent home in your child's book bag.

Absences

If your child is going to be absent for the day please inform the office who are available from 8am.

Appointments During School!

Please remember that taking your child out of school during the day is disruptive to their learning so we would ask that all future appointments are arranged outside of school hours if possible.

HELP! LOST SHEEP!

We have found three sheep hiding in our classroom. They are white and fluffy, and especially nice to cuddle. Do they belong to you?

Please contact St Clement's Reception class.

Lost sheep!

The children in Reception and Nursery came into school on Monday morning to something very mysterious! They had found sheep hiding in the classroom! All of the children were very excited that they had new furry friends to play with. But, we wondered where the sheep had appeared from. The children were very clever and predicted where they thought the sheep had come from, and were able to explain the reason for their answers.

A lost and found poster was sent out and luckily the owner of the sheep found our poster. Farmer Lee visited us on Wednesday to collect his missing sheep, and he talked about farm life. Farmer Lee was extremely grateful that the children had looked after the sheep so well, that he decided to invite us to the farm next Tuesday! All the children are very excited.

WORLD BOOK DAY

IS COMING NEXT WEEK!

One prize per class for most inventive costume!

For ideas visit

Thursday 3rd March All Day ☺

Next week is the 19th World Book Day and St. Clement's will be taking part in different ways within the school and raising money for Book Aid International.

Please can you encourage your child to bring in their favourite book to share with their class on the day.

Children and staff will also be dressing up as characters from a story and we really hope that everyone joins in with the fancy dress. It is not necessary to buy a costume. We have shared ideas in class for homemade costumes and more ideas are accessible from the link below. We are asking for a £1 donation per child on World Book Day. Please hand in your donations to your class teacher.

We look forward to seeing all your character costumes and favourite books next week.
