

The Anchor News

Serving the local community in the name of Christ since 1859

30th November 2018

Hi everyone,

My names Miss Doal and I am one of the Reception class teachers.

I hope you are all keeping warm and wrapping up as we move into the winter and Christmas period. I absolutely love Christmas and we are definitely getting into the festive spirit at St. Clement's! I can't wait to see all the Christmas trees and decorations all around school.

Make sure you keep an eye out on the newsletter for important dates and any changes that may occur. Reception and I are preparing for our nativity which will not be one to miss. Reception and Nursery are going on a trip to the farm on Monday where we get to meet Santa! Stay tuned for next week's newsletter for the photos.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Miss Doal, Class Teacher

Learning for Life, Anchored in Christ

Well done to all the children who have been involved in Switch Off Fortnight. I have been really impressed with all the children who have been reminding teachers to switch off lights and other electrical equipment.

We have done this to reduce our energy use so that we have less of an impact on the environment. As an added bonus we will hopefully save the school some money too.

Have you been taking part at home?

Starting on the 25th November 2018 was '16 Days and Actions to Stand up to Domestic Violence'.

At St. Clement's Academy we work closely with other agencies to educate the children on 'Positive Relationships'. Lots of the work delivered to develop staff and to inform the children is provided by Birmingham and Solihull Women's Aid. They also offer support regarding abuse, domestic violence, gender based violence, FGM, Forced Marriage and many more issues effecting women and young girls.

At the academy we encourage all to stand up to 'Domestic Violence' and make that change by getting the right help and support.

Ways of accessing support:

- St. Clement's C. of E. Academy
Talk with a staff member.
- Birmingham Crisis Centre
On their 24 hour phone line - 0121 507 0707
- Birmingham and Solihull Women's Aid
